Events. Fundraising. Done right.

who we are

LR Events understands the complexity and opportunities of fundraising events and leverages its expertise, know-how and management process to deliver best-in-class events that will maximize fundraising, audience engagement and results. We bring a depth of knowledge, skill, dynamic thinking and creativity to planning and executing your event, from corporate events to galas, conferences, auctions, virtual fundraising events, annual meetings, sponsorship packages and much more.

what we do

Our team of subject matter experts works as project managers. We collaborate with our clients, their boards, their teams and committees, sponsors, donors, members, volunteers and our large network of vendors providing education and training, as needed, to deliver the best possible outcome.

how we work

We work with clients to create a concept and consistent theme and carry it forward from beginning to end, including print and digital materials for Save the Date, invitations, email blasts, décor, lighting, floor plan, dress code, party favor, music, food and beverage, and overall production.

We build and follow a rigorous, end-to-end management process to ensure a flawless execution of the event covering every pre-event, event and post event detail. We are tech savvy, knowledgeable about multiple platforms and happy to support the client's technology of choice or handle it independently. Whether behind the scenes or in the frontline, we ensure all pieces fit in together seamlessly.
